SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF SHASTA

GENERAL ORDER RE: IMPLEMENTATION OF EMERGENCY RELIEF
AUTHORIZED PURSUANT TO GOVERNMENT CODE SECTION 68115 BY CHAIR
OF JUDICIAL COUNCIL

Exercising the authority granted under Government Code section 68115 and the July 27, 2018 Order of Chief Justice Tani G. Cantil-Sakauye, Chair of the California Judicial Council, issued in response to the July 27, 2018 request for an emergency order made by the Superior Court of Shasta County (“Court”), this Court HEREBY FINDS AND ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

1. For purposes of computing time for filing papers with the Court under Code of Civil Procedure sections 12 and 12a, July 27, 2018, is deemed a holiday (Gov. Code, § 68115(c));

2. For purposes of computing time under Penal Code section 825, and Welfare and Institutions Code sections 313, 315, 631, 632, 637, and 657, July 27, 2018, is deemed a holiday (Gov. Code, § 68115(d));

3. In appropriate cases, any judge of the Court may extend, to no later than July 30, 2018, the duration of any temporary restraining order that would otherwise expire on July 27, 2018, because the emergency condition described herein prevented the Court from conducting proceedings to determine whether a permanent order should be entered (Gov. Code, § 68115(e));

4. In appropriate cases, any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided in section 825 of the Penal Code within which a defendant charged with a felony offense must be taken before a magistrate from 48 hours to no more than four days, applicable only to cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire on July 27, 2018 (Gov. Code, § 68115(f));

5. In appropriate cases in which the last day of the statutory time period otherwise would occur on July 27, 2018, any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided in section 859b of the Penal Code for the holding of a preliminary examination from 10 court days to no more than 15 days (Gov. Code, § 68115(g));

6. In appropriate cases in which the last day of the statutory time period otherwise would occur on July 27, 2018, any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided in

1 section 1382 of the Penal Code for the holding of a criminal trial by no more than 15 days (Gov.
2 Code, § 68115(h));

3 7. In appropriate cases, any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided
4 in section 313 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a minor must be released from
5 custody by not more than two days, applicable only to minors for whom the statutory deadline
6 otherwise would expire on July 27, 2018 (Gov. Code, § 68115 (i));

7 8. In appropriate cases, any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided
8 in section 315 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a minor must be given a
9 detention hearing by not more than two days, applicable only to minors for whom the statutory
10 deadline otherwise would expire on July 27, 2018 (Gov. Code, § 68115 (i));

11 9. In appropriate cases, any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided
12 in sections 632 and 637 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a minor charged with 13 a felony offense must be given a detention hearing or rehearing by not more than two days,
14 applicable only to minors for whom the statutory deadline otherwise would expire on July 27,
15 2018 (Gov. Code, § 68115 (i));

16 10. In appropriate cases, any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided
17 in section 334 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which an adjudication on a juvenile 18 court petition must be held by no more than ten days, applicable only to minors for whom the 19 statutory time otherwise would expire on July 27, 2018 (Gov. Code, § 68115 (j)); and

20 11. In appropriate cases, any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided
21 in section 657 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which an adjudication on a
22 juvenile court petition where the minor has been charged with a felony must be held by not more
23 than ten days, applicable only to minors for whom the statutory time otherwise would expire on 24 July 27, 2018 (Gov. Code, § 68115 (j)).
