EMERGENCY ORDER REGARDING PROBATE DIVISION

NATURE OF PROCEEDINGS: ORDER

In furtherance of compliance with the California Department of Public Health and CDC guidelines and recommendations, the Probate Division of the Superior Court of California, County of Shasta is taking the following precautionary measures to ensure the health and safety of the community. Until further notice, this order pertains to all probate matters pending in Department 7 and all guardianship calendars pending in Department 12.

1. The Court will continue to hear the regular Monday Probate Calendar in Department 7 at 2:30 p.m. only through Monday, March 23, 2020.
2. All matters on the Monday Probate Calendar in Department 7 at 2:30 will be continued to future dates as follows:

Current hearing date	Continued hearing date
Monday, March 30, 2020	Monday, May 11, 2020
Monday, April 6, 2020	Monday, May 18, 2020
Monday, April 13, 2020	Monday, June 1, 2020

If Notice of Hearing was required for the current hearing date, a Notice of Hearing will be required to be timely served for the continued hearing date. If proof of publication was required for the current hearing date, timely proof of publication will be required for the continued hearing date.

3. After Monday, March 23, 2020, and until further notice, the Probate Division, including guardianship matters heard in Department 12, will only hear emergency matters. These matters would include, for example, emergency applications for appointment of a temporary conservator, special administrator, or temporary guardian, or any other applications of an emergent nature. The court may make special orders pertaining to the date, time, locations, and conditions under which those matters are heard, so as to comply with applicable Public Health directives. While the clerk's office is closed, papers can be deposited in the drop box just inside the entrance to the Courthouse on the first floor.
4. All Letters of Temporary Guardianship and Temporary Conservatorship that are set to expire prior to April 20, 2020, are hereby extended up to and including April 20, 2020. The clerk's office can issue updated letters where necessary.

5. Attorneys, Parties and members of the public will continue to receive current information concerning Emergency Orders of the Shasta County Superior Court on the Court's website, www.shasta.courts.ca.gov. More specific information pertaining to the Probate Division will also be posted on the tentative ruling page for the Probate Department. Specific information regarding Guardianships will be listed under Dept. 12.
